ex: Great Northern (Ireland) Rly (1-5), Great Southern Rly (10- 47), Midland Great Western Rly (50-66) & Dublin & South-Eastern Rly (70-73), Other Railways & Tramways (75-99)

Based on various Bradshaws Guides (BG) 1858, 1864, 1885, 1897 (z), 1913, 1934 etc, Red Guide (RG) & company timetables. (date)t – public timetables; (date)w – working timetables. U: unadvertised station/halt with purpose

Additional information from Johnson’s Atlas & Gazetteer of the Railways of Ireland (1997) and railway histories.

Former names: [] Distances in Miles; Gauge 5’ 3” unless noted;

op. opened; cl. closed; rn. renamed; rl. relocated; tm. terminus of service at date shown.

All points served by passenger trains unless shown () or noted. Bilingual English/Gaelic nameboards are provided at most current stations, but, to my knowledge, the Gaelic names, unless the only name at the time, have never been shown in the public timetables. See Wikipedia on-line entries for current stations for the Gaelic names – not shown in my list.

Current operator: Irish Rail (IR); previous operator: Córas Iompair Éireann (CIE);
